

National Teaching Assistants' Day

16th Sep 2020

Nominate Your Lockdown Heroes

This year the annual Teaching Assistant of the Year competition is all about celebrating those Teaching Assistants who have been heroes throughout the pandemic.

We have heard great examples of Teaching Assistants supporting the children of key workers in school, and staying in regular contact with pupils at home, supporting their remote learning and general wellbeing.

Nominate your TAs using the link below

Nominations for Teaching Assistant of the Year extended until 10am on 14th September 2020

The Winners and The Prizes

Three winners will be selected from nominations from primary, secondary and special needs schools, as well as a winner nominated by the Teaching Personnel consultants and a winner nominated via social media.

Additionally, there will be an overall "champion of champions", selected by our sister company Best Practice Network, with the nominating school receiving a very special prize.

The Winner of each of the five categories will receive a range of prizes from our partners:

- Staffing
- Intervention
- Supply

From Teaching Personnel:

Teaching Assistant of the Year Trophy and a Tablet Computer

From Best Practice Network:

Free place on the national HLTA program

From Judicium Education & SBS:

£50 Amazon Voucher

The schools nominating the winner of each category:

From Edplace:

Free 12-month access for up to 100 students to English, maths & science learning resources.

The school nominating the overall winner will receive:

From Best Practice Network:

The school nominating the overall winner will receive access to BPN's new accredited CPD library, The School Suite, for a free 12-month subscription valued at £2,000*
